

I am writing to plead for your attention for Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. It is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and the sway that money and power can have over honest intentioned broadcast media. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and therefore is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Large companies controlling the airwaves discredits the beneficial power of the media and scraps the FCC's goal of fairness and freedom. I demand that you put a stop to their corporate bullying and illegal attempts to sway public opinion. Thank you.
